EXTENSION OF STATUTORY FRINGE BENEFITS
TO CERTAIN CONTRACT PERSONNEL

1. At the Agency's request, the Civil Service Commission recently approved the granting of a number of fringe benefits to certain contract personnel. Entitlement to civil service retirement, Federal health benefits, Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance, and unemployment compensation benefits has now been extended to [] and contract employees who are U.S. citizens.

25X1

2. These new fringe benefits will be included in contracts written on or after 1 July 1967 in accordance with the Agency's original intent to cover [] and U.S. citizen contract employees whose contract term exceeds one year. Some contract personnel will continue to be excluded from coverage; e.g., resident aliens, foreign nationals, and intermittent (WAE) employees.

25X1

3. The Office of Personnel is preparing a set of guidelines and instructions and will call group meetings with administrative personnel to assist them in implementing these new contractual benefit programs.
